JESSICA'S JOURNALS

Jessica is a sensitive and observant ten-year old when she first starts writing her journal and over the years she finds comfort in jotting down her thoughts and her feelings. Each book corresponds to a year, in which Jessica explores new friendships, finds her first love, deals with problems at school and at home and gradually grows to eventually become a mature and insightful young lady. The journals deal with the typical problems teenage girls face in their everyday lives and analyse the relationship between Jessica and her family, friends and teachers. Following the evolution of Jessica's character, young girls can relate to her problems, fears, dreams and worries.
